

IIM Lucknow Strengthens Its Commitment to Global Excellence with AACSB Re-accreditation!

Feb 05, 2025- The AACSB board granted IIM Lucknow an extension of accreditation for all its degree programs on the recommendation of the Peer review team, reinforcing its commitment to world-class management education. This achievement reflects the institute's dedication to academic excellence, continuous improvement, and global standards.

The Peer Review Team from AACSB visited the campus from November 10th to 12th to review the campus on specified standards like quality assurance, business education intelligence, learning and development, and diversity, such as age ranges, gender, and standardized test scores.

About AACSB-

The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) is a global nonprofit organization that accredits business schools. AACSB's mission is to create future leaders by establishing high standards for business education.

What does AACSB do?

- Accredits business administration and accounting programs at the bachelor's, master's, and doctoral levels
- Independently reviews business curricula worldwide
- Connects educators, students, and businesses
- Promotes quality assurance, business education intelligence, and learning and development

Congratulations to the entire IIM Lucknow community on this significant milestone.
